

Malbec Nation

TERROIRS

Argentina offers a wide variety of climates and regions to produce high quality grapes. Mendoza is the main viticultural province where Malbec finds excellent conditions to grow and to exhibit its great characteristics. From sandy-clay soils in Luján de Cuyo to stony soils in Valle de Uco, our winemaking team has chosen the best terroirs to grow the fruit for this amazing wine.

ORIGIN: Mendoza, Argentina

CLIMATE: Arid, continental

COMPOSITION: 100% Malbec

ALCOHOL: 13.9%

AGING: 3 months in oak barrels

TASTING NOTES

 Deep, dark red color with violet hues

 Great freshness and fruitiness, medium body and excellent mouthfeel. Sweet, soft and round tannins.

 It shows great aromas to red and black fruits such as raspberry, cherry, plum and cassis

PAIRING RECOMMENDATION: cheese, pasta and any type of grilled meats.

KEY SELLING POINTS

300 days
of sunshine

#1 Region
in the world for malbec
MENDOZA= MALBEC

3 best terroirs in Mendoza

Malbec is easy to drink.
Delivers consistent high quality

8.000
Cases produced per year
Limited production

 $
Excellent quality
vs price ratio

